

CONTINUE PROBE OF FUNDS SPENT BY CANDIDATES

Backers of Various Aspirants Before Committee

LARGE SUMS INVOLVED

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Inquiry into pre-convention campaign expenditures and pledges of presidential candidates, the senate investigating committee dealt today with the candidacies of Herbert Hoover and Senator France, of Maryland, republicans, and Governor Edwards, of New Jersey, and Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, democrats.

From B. M. Baruch was sought information as to the campaign being made in behalf of William G. McAdoo for the democratic nomination but Mr. Baruch testified to his own ignorance of campaigns or campaign financing for any candidates.

John F. Lucey, a manager for Mr. Hoover, said the national campaign fund raised amounted to about $82,000 with a deficit of $4,000 exclusive of the sums spent in California. Questioned, he said, he would ask the head of the Hoover campaign in California for information on expenses there. C. J. Hepburn, a Pennsylvania Hoover leader, said that $20,000 had been contributed in that state.

W. W. Vicks, representing Governor Edwards, testified to collection of $12,900 for his principal, and flatly denied "wet" influences, money or individuals were or would be concerned in it.

For Senator Owen, J. W. Belter, a manager, said $10,410 had been collected, and expressed the opinion that more could have been used.

Chairman Kenyon after adjournment, ordered the summoning of Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, and Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts, or their representatives.

When Mr. Baruch went on the stand, Chairman Kenyon read newspaper accounts of a fund of $5,000,000 said to have been raised for Mr. McAdoo and mentioning Mr. Baruch, Cleveland H. Dodge, Henry Morgenthau, Thomas Chadbourne and others as contributors. Mr. Baruch declared, there was not a "scintilla of truth" in the reports. He repudiated the further suggestion of Chairman Kenyon that he was a sort of a "governmental assistant" and said emphatically he was merely a private citizen without political associations, interests or governmental attachments.

The inquiry into the Hoover campaign ran several hours. Senator Reed, of Missouri, democrat, desired to compare the contributors' list with the salary roll of the United States Grain Corporation, asserting $25,000 jobs and large contributions were attached to identical individuals. Mr. Lucey and Mr. Hepburn replied that associates of Mr. Hoover in war activities and Belgian relief work had been very generous. They had imposed a $10,000 limit on gifts, they said, and had ruled out corporations and banks as contributors.

Mr. Hoover had little or no connection with their enterprises, they added.

Emmerson Issues Statement

Chicago, May 25.—Declaring a complete statement of the Lowden presidential campaign has been presented before the senate investigating committee at Washington, Louis L. Emmerson, chairman of the Lowden campaign committee, said tonight other candidates should be called on to make as full a presentation of their receipts and expenditures.

"Governor Lowden's campaign manager has always insisted that there has been nothing to conceal in connection with his presidential campaign," Mr. Emmerson said upon his return from Washington. "With this solely in mind, we have kept faith with that position. That was our purpose in presenting a complete and unequivocal statement of our campaign finances to the senate committee."

"We fully expect, and believe we have the unqualified right to insist that each of the other candidates shall be caused to make as full presentation of their receipts and expenditures as we have done. We feel that the people are certainly entitled to as complete an exposition of receipts and expenditures as has been made in the case of Governor Lowden. We have no doubt that the senate committee will proceed upon that theory."

"We have resorted to no quibbling in producing the facts, nor have we attempted to hide behind any subsidiary organization. We have no reason to think that the senate committee will permit any other candidate to take advantage of any technical subterfuge."

ANNUAL ARMY BILL PASSED BY SENATE TOTALS $415,919,000

Measure Shows Increase Over House Draft—Goes to Conference

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The senate today passed the annual army appropriation bill carrying $415,919,000 and sent it to conference.

The bill provides an increase of approximately $42,000,000 over the house bill, but $353,000,000 less than the appropriation for the present fiscal year. The principal senate increase was $12,745,000 for the army air service, making a total $40,000,000.

The senate eliminated house provisions which would give the army air service control of all military aerial operations from land bases and would confine naval aviation to fleet operations, fleet shore bases, training of personnel and construction and experimental work.

Authorization was given by the senate for the sale of eight old army transports and of the Howitzer plant at Erie, Pa., and establishment of a government-owned plant at the Watervliet arsenal, New York, to manufacture medium calibre field artillery.

The senate rejected an amendment by Senator New, Republican of Indiana, designed to prevent the dumping of surplus airplanes from foreign countries into the United States at prices below those of American manufacturers.

At Secretary Baker's another amendment was inserted authorizing the president to confer the congressional medal on Verdun, France.

BASIC CONVENTION RUSHES WORK

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 25.—Consideration of the eight sections of the article for the new constitution on corporations and co-operative associations was accompanied by the Illinois constitutional convention meeting today in committee of the whole.

An article of fifteen sections presented as a minority report from the committee awaits the action of the convention.

After a bitter fight in which charges were made that a "joker" had been inserted the convention voted to eliminate the fifth section which read:

"The rates, charges and service of all common carriers, railways and public utility corporations, shall not be discriminatory nor confiscatory, but must and shall be to the general public and to such corporations."

Delegate Oscar Carlstrom, of Alton, characterized the section as "pernicious" and declared it would put the convention in the position of surrendering the sovereignty of the state.

FIND BODY IN DRAINAGE CANAL

JOLIET, Ill., May 25.—The body of a man found in the drainage canal at Lockport yesterday afternoon was identified last night as that of Richard B. Wissman, 32 years old, formerly a clerk in the offices of the Continental Trust Co. in Chicago. Identification was made by John R. Wissman, a brother of the dead man. The body was taken to the home, 1647 West 21st place, Chicago, this morning. Wissman was unmarried.

Wissman had been ill for some time. Last winter it is said, he suffered a nervous breakdown and had been under the care of a specialist. On the morning of March 1, he eluded his relatives and went from the house. He was clothed in army apparel of his brother. Ten days later his overcoat was found on the banks of the Chicago river. The theory was at once advanced, it is said, that he had committed suicide.

SONS OF JOHNSON AND WOOD MEET

CHICAGO, May 25.—Two young men who are political opponents of a strange sort—sons of two of the candidates for the Republican nomination for president—met yesterday at the headquarters here of Senator Hiram W. Johnson.

"I'm Osborne Wood," said the young man in an army officer's uniform to the western senator's son. "Heard you were in town and thought you might like to have cards to some of the clubs."

"That's mighty decent of you," said young Johnson as they shook hands.

HOUSE FOREIGN BODY WILL TAKE UP ARMENIAN MANDATE

Plan to Take up Wilson's Request Today

ACTION CAUSES MUCH COMMENT

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The house foreign affairs committee will meet tomorrow to consider President Wilson's request that he be given authority to accept a mandate over Armenia.

Announcement tonight by Chairman Porter that the committee had been called to take up the proposal immediately and that Secretary Colby would be the first witness caused comment among members, who had believed that the question would not come up until after the convention recess.

Some democrats said they construed the call to mean that the republicans had decided to act immediately on the president's request and refuse to grant it. The question was discussed today by republicans at a number of informal conferences and the opinion was expressed by many that should congress fail to act and then adjourn to December as some members have urged, the president might call a special session. It is known the republican leaders have advised against the possibility of a special summons.

Chairman Porter in a statement said he regarded "the proposition of sending American soldiers to Armenia or any other foreign country for the purpose of settling their political and economical quarrels as utterly absurd."

"If my views prevail with the committee," he said, "we shall give the president a mandate to follow that portion of Washington's farwells address admonishing us to keep out of European entanglements or I would gladly give him mandatory power to intervene in Mexico and stop the murder and robbery of American citizens."

"The word 'mandate' is misleading. In the past the action suggested by the president would have been called forcible intervention which is equivalent to war."

"If the president will apply his 'watchful waiting' to Armenia and other foreign countries and forcible intervention to distracted Mexico, I could agree with him, but distance appears to lend enchantment to the presidential view."

Send Message to Senate

New York, May 25.—If the full rights of Armenia are not recognized, an American mandate would mean she would be despoiled of her most fertile province and that American soldiers will simply be used to prevent Armenians from coming into their own, according to a telegraphic statement sent today by the American committee for Armenian independence to the senate foreign relations committee.

"President Wilson," it read, "in his message to congress recommending the advisability of American assuming a mandate for Armenia states he will arbitrate the question of the boundaries between Turkey and Armenia in the Vilayets of Erzerum, Trebizond, Van and Bitlis. This means Armenia is to be despoiled of her most fertile provinces of Harpoot, Diarbekir, Sivass and Cilicia."

Characterizing Cilicia as an Armenian California, able alone to sustain 15,000,000 people, the statement asserted it explained why "a certain power is ready to set its soul to the destruction of the Armenian people and the Turk to get possession of the richest province, not only of the world, but of the entire world."

Senator Borah is right in saying that the allies should restore Armenia, the portions they have allocated to themselves by the secret Sykes-Picot pact," the statement said, "America helped win the war to make the world safe for democracy. Great Britain wanted to save in Armenia, but the cotton fields of Cilicia and the rich wheat lands, the mineral wealth of Harpoot, Diarbekir and the southwestern provinces."

"It is these richest provinces—really the heart and backbone of Armenia—that the allies are hypocritically representing as poor and barren lands."

SEN. SHERMAN ATTACKS SOLDIER RELIEF BILL

Washington, May 25.—Senator Sherman, Republican of Illinois, speaking today in the senate, denounced the proposed soldier relief bill as a "disgraceful deterioration of the patriotism of a great country." If the impelling aim of the American Legion is "to loot the federal treasury," he said, "it is a disgraceful organization."

KRAMER WILL CALL DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION TO ORDER

Selection of Montana Man Made at Meeting of National Committeemen

WASHINGTON, May 25.—J. Bruce Kramer of Montana, vice-chairman of the Democratic national committee will call the Democratic national convention to order, when it meets in San Francisco June 25.

Mr. Kramer was selected, the national committeemen announced tonight, but Chairman Cummings has been designated to act as temporary chairman of the convention and because it was thought fitting that a western man should open the first convention of the party to be held west of the Rocky mountains.

Both Chairman Cummings and Vice Chairman Kramer will leave for San Francisco next week to attend meetings of the committee on arrangements.

At headquarters of the national committee, it was said, reports from George F. Mara, assistant to Chairman Cummings, sent to San Francisco several months ago, indicated all arrangements would be completed in plenty of time.

Only one contest, that from Georgia between the delegations pledged to Attorney-General Palmer, and the delegation selected by the followers of Senator Hoke Smith and Thomas E. Watson, has thus far been filed with the national committee.

SOLDIER RELIEF BILL APPEARS TO BE DOOMED

WASHINGTON, May 25.—House leaders were "up in the air" today over soldier relief legislation.

With democrats and about 50 republicans attempting to block immediate consideration, leaders started a new move in the hope of presenting the bill not later than Thursday, instead of the effort to give the relief bill the right of way by a special rule. Republicans fighting for the banus announced they would endeavor to get it before the house by suspension of the rules.

Democrats asserted they would put up a solid front and with the help of "insurgent republicans" defeat the big tax measure.

In the senate, Senator Sherman, Republican of Illinois, denounced the legislation as an "atavism" by the American Legion to loot the federal treasury.

Disorder also has been reported in San Luis Potosi and General Obregon has sent 500 men there.

The situation in Oaxaca is regarded as far from satisfactory in spite of the announcement by General Melquiades of his adhesion to the Obregon-Gonzales government.

LOWER SHOE PRICES PREDICTED

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Lower shoe prices late next winter and spring were predicted today by E. A. Brand, secretary of the Tanners' Council of the United States, testifying before a senate committee of inquiry.

Tanners and manufacturers believe prices will fall by then, he said, because of the recent decline in leather prices. This decline could not, sooner be reflected in shoe costs, he said, because shoes are made up far in advance of the season.

"If leather prices stay where they are now," he said, "it means that the cheaper hides will come into leather in ten months at least, and cheaper leather means cheaper shoes. Shoe prices should begin to become lower late next winter—not in the fall—but early winter, and in the spring providing nothing unforeseen happens."

FRAMING OF NEW MEX GOVERNMENT WILL TAKE TIME

Many Forces Reported Hostile to the De Facto

VILLA NOT IN ACCORD

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Mexican advices indicate that the revolutionists have much to do before stable government can be established. Military leaders are reported with small forces under arms, either still loyal to Carranza, or for other reasons hostile to the de facto.

These groups are recognized by Mexican observers to be a possible nucleus for new revolts. Representatives of the new government, however, minimize their importance.

Francisco Villa, whose force is estimated up to several thousand, is reckoned the most important. It is evident from news dispatches he is not in accord with the new regime.

General Canido Aguilar, Carranza's son-in-law, still is in the field. He was last reported at Jalapilla, with 300 men. General Bertani, who acknowledges Aguilar as his child, is at Zongolica with 15 men, reports say.

General Domingo Arrita, Carranza's governor of Durango, is known to be still hostile.

DANIELS CHARGES COMMITTEE WITH PRO- LONGING HEARINGS

Naval Secretary and Chairman Have Sharp Words Over Delay

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Secretary Daniels accused the senate naval investigating committee today of "digging up ancient history" and "airing grievances and grudges of disgruntled naval officers." The accusations came while Chairman Hale was asking about the disappearance in 1914 from the navy department files of a letter from Rear Admiral Bradley Fiske on naval preparedness.

Mr. Daniels said he had no objections to prolonging the hearings by going back that far, but said he did not see how the matters referred to had any bearing on the naval conduct of the war. Chairman Hale replied he was seeking to show Secretary Daniels was warned by his chief technical advisers that the American navy was not prepared for war previous to the war.

The chairman virtually charged Mr. Daniels at another point with having withheld from the senate a letter from Rear Admiral A. M. Knight, written in August 1914, advising immediate withdrawal of American battleships from Mexican waters and the preparation of the navy for possible eventualities resulting from the world war, then beginning.

Secretary Daniels said he had not considered Admiral Knight's letter as an official communication from the general board, had not considered it related to preparation of the navy but was rather an elaboration on Rear Admiral Fiske's insistence that the battleships in southern waters be brought home.

Cross examination of the naval chief centered largely today around the old controversy between Mr. Daniels and Admiral Fiske regarding reorganization of the navy department and placing responsibility and authority for the direction of the entire navy in the hands of a naval officer. Characterizing Admiral Fiske as a "monumental egotist," "who bored me to exhaustion," the secretary said the officer was actuated by a desire "to Prussianize" the navy. Chairman Hale announced that in view of the gravity of the charges Admiral Fiske would be given an opportunity to appear later.

MORE STATISTICS CITED BY WHITER

CHICAGO, May 25.—Increases in the cost of living during the last five years should not be considered as grounds for granting higher wages to railroad signalmen and helpers because they have been given raises more than ample to cover the higher living costs, E. T. Whiter, representing the railroads, told the railroad labor board today.

Mr. Whiter, in replying to the demands of the signalmen, did not give any figures concerning the increase in the cost of living, but said that such statistics were being prepared. He said the signalmen had received increases ranging from 130 per cent to 160 per cent and from 110 per cent to 160 per cent for helpers, since 1915.

Indications today were that the railroads would finish the presentation of their case this week. Both sides then will be given opportunity for rebuttal.

The police attributed his act to an attack of insanity.

MAYOR THOMPSON SCORES VICTORY OVER GOV. LOWDEN

Organize State Committee Against Governor's Wishes

FRANK SMITH IS RE-ELECTED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 25.—Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago demonstrated his control of the Republican state central committee tonight by proceeding with the organization of the committee against the wishes of Governor Frank O. Lowden. Congressman Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, was re-elected state chairman and Harry Ward of Duquoin, was elected secretary. Both had the approval of the Chicago Republicans.

Fifteen members of the committee voted against a resolution presented by Adam C. Cliffe, of Sycamore, committeeman from the twelfth district, which would have postponed the organization of the state committee until after the September primary. The resolution had the approval of the governor who has declared that the Republicans nominated for state offices in November should be accorded a voice in naming the state chairman.

The fifteen voting for the Thompson plan of immediate organization included the committeemen from the ten Chicago districts and the following from down state: Garrett D. Kinney, Peoria; E. B. Hawk, Bloomington; Len Small of Kankakee, holding the proxy of Ernest X. Lesauere of Danville; Cleo R. Lindley, Greenville; and George M. Miley, Harrisburg.

Those voting to sustain the governor's plan were: Justus A. Johnson, Aurora; Adam C. Cliffe, Sycamore; Arthur M. Smith, Stockton; Walter A. Rossfield, Rock Island; Jerome A. Christy, Quincy; James S. Baldwin, Decatur; S. Elmer Simpson, Carrollton; Richard M. Sullivan, Springfield; George A. Brown, Vandalia, and Charles H. Miller, Benton.

Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Ward were elected without opposition. Mr. Ward succeeds Mr. Johnson, of Aurora, the present secretary. The meeting adopted a resolution authorizing Chairman Smith to appoint a committee to employ counsel to intervene in behalf of the state committee and Illinois Republicans in the suit now on file in the supreme court to test the constitutionality of the primary law.

The resolution declares that "chaos will exist in the affairs of the two large parties if the primary law is declared unconstitutional. According to the resolution a declaration that the law is unconstitutional would leave the state with no primary law in force, would nullify the election of delegates to the national convention, state and territorial conventions, delegates to the state convention, ward, district and precinct committeemen and the nominations of clerks of the appellate courts districts who were nominated at the state conventions of both political parties held on the tenth day of May."

The case on which the constitutionality of the law will be tested was brought to the supreme court on a writ of error from the municipal court of Chicago. Attorneys for William Fox, convicted of fraudulent voting, held in their arguments that the law is unconstitutional.

4,000,000 POUNDS OF SUGAR IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, May 25.—Sixty-odd cars of sugar, totalling nearly four million pounds, are on Illinois central tracks in Chicago, according to a report made today to District Attorney Clynne by Edward J. Brennan of the department of Justice. There is no evidence of hoarding according to the report, the freight tie up being responsible for the inability to move the sugar.

Mr. Brennan recommended that the government libel the sugar so that it could order it moved regardless of strikes or contention.

Since all commentators agree that the freight congestion was one of the chief reasons for present market and financial conditions, isn't it reasonable to expect that these conditions will improve if the freight congestion is relieved? And railroad conditions are according to best information available improving from day to day.

It seems to rain these days without difficulty, and the weather man continues to prophesy showers. These gloomy predictions will probably be fulfilled, but if you look back in the weather records for fifteen years you will find to your surprise that these spring conditions have been duplicated and still crop results have been satisfactory.

LOOKING BACK TO DIAZ

The Ibanez estimate of Diaz, in which he declares the once president of Mexico is a veritable tyrant, is not in accord with the general impression that many people in the United States had of Diaz. But while condemning the tyranny of Diaz and charging him with wholesale murder of opponents of his regime, the Spanish writer does credit him with having advanced Mexico in a material way.

He says, too, that there has been absolutely no progress during the ten years that have elapsed since the downfall of the Diaz government. Nothing accomplished in a whole decade. Thousands of the population degraded and want. Other thousands murdered. Isn't there as great a call for a mandate in Mexico as there is in far-off Armenia, where the existence of terrible conditions is an undeniable fact.

Farmers view livestock and grain market conditions with varying feelings. The farmer who had cribs full of corn and didn't accept the $2 price a few days ago is now looking with grief at the quotations which run near the $1.75 mark. On the other hand the farmer who is feeding hogs can get a certain amount of pleasure from the declining grain market because he knew that it was positively a losing game to feed $2 corn to 15c hogs.

KEEPING SPORT CLEAN

Wholesale arrests of gamblers were made at a league ball park in Chicago Monday. The base ball managers themselves initiated the proceedings which resulted in the arrests, and the same movement is fostered by the base ball managers all through the big cities.

Their action is in line with that of the proprietors of billiard rooms, who use their best efforts to put a quietus on gambling in their establishments. Both actions are recognition of the fact that sports must be kept free from gambling if they flourish as they should and continue with present prosperity. The proprietors and managers may or may not have personal scruples about the gambling evil, but they know also that the course they are adopting is suggested by "good business."

SPENDING HIS OWN MONEY

Four hundred thousand dollars sounds like a big sum for a presidential candidate to spend, but to count campaign in a large number of states means large and legitimate expenses. Gov. Lowden's managers frankly state that by far the greater part of the expenditure was the governor's own money. If he had accepted large sums from groups or individuals with axes to grind, the fund would occasion some criticism, but as a matter of private expense it is different.

When a candidate for governor of this state, Mr. Lowden followed the plan of employing workers and paying them well for their services, instead of making promises of favors to come if elected. For that reason he was free from entanglements when he took the executive chair.

FIGURES ON EXTRAVAGANCE

One of the most remarkable reports concerning congressional investigations of war expenditures is that of the Graham select committee with reference to nitrate. The committee makes this striking statement, which it proceeds to show is based on facts: "The government's nitrate program has cost up to the present time $116,194,974.37. has produced no nitrates and contributed nothing toward the winning of the war." It will be hard to convince any American of average capacity to understand a business proposition that there was any justifiable reason for such a hapless and expensive failure.

CRITICIZING BIG BUSINESS

One of the charges brought by the Federal Trade Commission against the meat packers is that they put part of their profits back into the business, thus gradually extending it and bringing it to its present immense proportions. The same accusation might be made against the owners of our telephone and telephone systems, our railroad systems, and all other large enterprises.

Theodore N. Vail, who died recently, began life as a telegraph operator at a small weekly wage. Alexander H. Bell invented the telephone and Vail had the imagination, the energy and the thrift to make it a business success. He put his own savings into the development of telephone service. He encouraged others to invest their savings, and from their profits they extended the system. Not all the money that went into telephone development was the savings from telephone business, but it was the savings from some kind of enterprise, and it matters not what, so long as the savings were honestly acquired.

Without profits—accumulated profits—there clearly could not be any accumulation of funds with which to carry on large undertakings.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

FORSAKEN FARMS.

There are no tillers willing to stay upon the farm; to town they all are drilling; the hayfield has no charm, I hear farmers wailing as they go forth to plow; their standbys all are failing, there are no hired men now. The yeoman waves his money, and cries, "Who'll work for me?" And people think it funny his dire distress to see. The farmer seeks the village, imploring husky men to help him with his tillage and raise big crops again. He offers princely wages, he'd throw a chrome in, and all the village sages just sit around and grin. The farmers' rolling acres won't roll up ample crops; his money has no takers, no helper with him stops. There is no stalwart bumpkin to help him bale his wheat, he cannot thresh the pumpkin or shuck the sugar beet. The populations shifting to towns, we plainly see, and whither are we drifting, my friends, when such things be? If I were only younger I'd farm a strip of loam, and help to thwart the hunger that threatens every home. The farm lands of the nation must grow string beans and oats, or we shall have starvation, and lose our valued goats.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Lonesome Days Coming

By Ensley Moore
(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

There used to be a poem set to music, which Bill used to sing:

"I am sitting today by the old play ground,

Where you and I have sat so oft together,

And I'm thinking of the joys when you and I were boys,

In those happy days, now gone, John, forever."

The old song brings back thoughts which used to come about this time of year to the boys and girls, the young men and maidens of Jacksonville. This time when College was so near "out," and the Academy girls or those at the Methodist College or at the Athenaeum were soon to go home. And the summer days dawned brightly then, but they grew sadder and sadder, and longer and longer when the boys had gone from college or the girls from their schools. Boys then; grandfathers today; or sleeping some of them with "Old Glory" at the heads of their beds. Girls then, sweet and lithe; grandmothers today or lying under the trees in Diamond Grove, and the birds singing above their quiet cots.

The Little Recitation Room.—Do you remember—any one—the little room in the southeast corner of the old Academy, where the boys and girls went out to play games, "Reception Nights"?

Have you forgotten the gay and pretty young girls then; or, you, the manly boys?

Where are they all now?

Mattie, or Augusta, or Carrie, Kate, or Laura or Mollie, or Clara, or Mary Franc or "Beet," or John, or Henry, or Charlie M., or Charlie E., or Charlie G.?

BILLIARD MEN TO MEET IN JACKSONVILLE

The annual convention of the 12th district of the Illinois Billiard association will be held in this city in the course of the next thirty days. Announcement to this effect was made by L. F. Randall Monday. Mr. Randall is vice president of the association for this district, which includes the following counties: Morgan, Logan, Sangamon, Menard, Mason, Scott, Cass, Adams, Hancock, Schuyler, Pike and Brown.

The association purposes to oppose legislation restricting the playing of billiards. Furthermore, the association lends its support to those establishments where billiards are played simply as a clean sport and means of entertainment and without gambling. It is said that billiard rooms where gambling is permitted are now very few, proprietors themselves having taken the necessary steps to get rid of unsatisfactory conditions.

GAVE DEMONSTRATION OF SHEEP SHEARING

George B. Kendall of the Farm Bureau and C. W. Crawford of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry gave a sheep shearing demonstration on the farm of Rex Ranson, north of Woodson, yesterday before an interesting number of farmers. Mr. Crawford demonstrated the hand machine and Leonard Watson demonstrated the use of the hand shears.

VISITED STATE UNIVERSITY

A. B. Williamson has returned from Champaign, where he went to visit his son, Lindsey. While there the Jacksonville man had the pleasure of seeing the baseball game between Illinois and Wisconsin teams and also attended a number of student activities.

Then the "Receptions".

Have the girls of the fifties or sixties forgotten the "Receptions" with the older people, at the Academy or at the Methodist College, or at "Cedar Place"? Surely the young men could not—old as they are now—forget the parting strolls, the lingerings in the shadows, the steps of Sturtevant Hall.

Summer Days were bright then, but she had gone; yes, they were bright, but the boy who fell at Donelson or Pea Ridge never came back to the heart still lonely here.

And the days were long even to those, man or woman, who were to meet again; to those who were to walk hand in hand down to the Golden Gate.

And there were soldiers then, for whom the loved ones made flags and little keepsakes, in '61 to '65 or in '98. Frank Adams, Ed. Adams, Jas. T. Marshall, James A. Gallaher, Mabrey Greenwood, George G. Wood, and others, who gave the full measure of their devotion to their country. Should not age—dimming eyes grow misty at thought of them?

Young people generally, did not go to Atlantic City, or Colorado, or Lake Geneva, or to Chautauquas then. They wore out the hot, sultry days missing the loved ones; missing even those fickle ones who forgot those left behind.

Longfellow said:

"And the strange and beautiful song,

The groves are repeating it still: "A boys will is the wind's will" And the thoughts of youth ere long, long thoughts."

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONTEST CLOSES

An interesting membership and attendance contest has been concluded at the Epworth League of Grace M. E. church. The attendance Sunday was 102. For the six weeks the contest has been running the lowest attendance has been 45. For this interesting contest sides were chosen and the Whites led by Misses Cornelia Larue and Maude Moxon won.

The agreement to the original agreement the Reds, who are under the leadership of Miss Leta Groves and William Mellen, will entertain the members of the winning side. To discharge this obligation a picnic supper has been arranged for Thursday night at Nichols park and if the weather is unfavorable it will be served at Grace church.

The contest has not only added to the number in attendance but also greatly to the interest in the organization.

BAD MUD HOLE ON MORTON ROAD

Just east of the hard road on Morton avenue, in front of the James E. Rawlins farm and adjacent to the point where the Middendorf farm and that operated by T. H. Buckthorpe corner, is a bad mudhole, where at least ten automobiles stuck yesterday. Persons who live in that locality have made complaint to the road commissioner and are hoping for some early relief. They believe that a half day's work with a grader will remedy the whole trouble.

Certainly on a road used so much by cross country travelers speedy relief should be given and the local tax payers and tourists are both entitled to it.

The BOTTOM of the WORLD

A PICTORIAL TRIUMPH

against the ever-present dangers of the Polar Seas, completely cut off from the outside world.

Although their ship, the "Endurance," was crushed by the ice more than 800 miles from the nearest civilized settlement, the entire party, without the loss of a man, was returned safely home.

For the first time the American public is given an opportunity to really visualize the dangers and hardships encountered by explorers seeking knowledge and information of the vast and heretofore unknown Antarctic regions.

"The Bottom of the World," graphically depicts the perilous journey of the Shackleton expedition through the treacherous seas of the South Polar regions, from the time the little party left Buenos Aires, October 27, 1914, until it arrived at Valparaiso, Chile, May 20, two years later.

RE-ELECT EDITOR OF METHODIST REVIEW

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 25.—Re-election of the editor of the Methodist Review, one of the publications of the Methodist Episcopal church, was necessary at the general conference of the church here today.

Dr. George Elliott, of Detroit, was announced elected several days ago. An examination of the vote was said to disclose he did not have a majority, and on ballot today, Dr. Elliott was elected.

Assignment of bishops for the ensuing four years announced today, showed few changes in the districts over which the bishops elected in 1916 or previously will preside.

A committee asked the conference to approve the policy of the Methodist Book Concern as to organizing labor at the Cincinnati publishing house. A form of collective bargaining, called by the authorities of the book concern, "group bargaining" as to the wage scale and hours of employment, as well as other items, has been worked out, and has been copied by many industrial institutions. The reports further asked that the book concern continue to friendly relations with organized labor.

FOOD PRICES GO DOWN

Chicago, May 25.—Prices of all vegetables dropped from five to thirty-five percent on the Chicago market in the last ten days due to increased receipts according to commission merchants, who stated today cabbage were selling at $3.50 a crate against $4.50 last week. Onions, they said, had scored a 30 per cent decrease, and oranges fifteen per cent. New potatoes sold for $1.50 less than a week ago. Among other slumps reported were rhubarb from $3.50 to $2.50 and strawberries from $7.50 to $6.50 a case.

INCREASE COMMON STOCK

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 25.—Stockholders of the American Woolen company today authorized the directors to increase the common stock of the corporation from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 and the preferred stock from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000.

ILLINOIS WOMEN'S CLUBS IN SESSION

CHICAGO, May 25.—With nearly 1,000 delegates representing 600 women's club and 7,000 club women of Illinois present, the Illinois federation of women's clubs today opened its silver jubilee convention.

Mrs. William H. Hart, president, welcomed the delegates. She stressed the activities of the federation on Americanism and thrift and urged all members to buy nothing not essential.

"If this country is good enough for thousands of foreigners to leave their national shores for, the language is good enough for them to speak," she said. "Americanization is not a science, but a change of heart, and women of the federation can accomplish results by a friendly sisterhood with foreign women."

She told of the work of the federation in community service, public health nursing and relief activities for the Armenians and Syrians. While the federation is working for thrift in its state activities, it will also be strictly observed in the convention which is to continue through the week.

PRESBYTERIANS FAVOR CHURCH MOVEMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 25.—After all day debate the general assembly of the Presbyterian church today rejected the proposal of the executive commission to withdraw support of the inter-church world movement and voted to re-commit the matter to the commission for a revised report.

This action was considered a partial victory for the supporters of the inter-church movement, as it gives renewed hope for some action to continue the project in a modified form.

Rev. George Penrost of this city, declared the inter-church movement had placed the Presbyterian church in the same position as the United States was placed by the league of nations. "This country," he said, "no longer commands the position as the leading nation and is now at the tail so far as influence in the world is concerned."

AWARD CONTRACT FOR DECATUR RESERVOIR

State-wide interest has attended the efforts of Decatur to launch the project, and the awarding of the contract culminates nine years' work of preparation and agitation.

IT'S the man of farsight and vision that turns the conditions of today to his future advantage. The dollar of today looks mighty small in relation to its buying power and most of us are getting a sufficient number of those dollars to meet our current cost of living and few dollars over. But the days are not far off when that dollar will grow in purchasing power and when it does the dollars will not be so plentifully or generously circulated. The man who saves those little dollars now and puts them away in a safe Savings Bank will find they have grown tremendously in importance and usefulness when dollars are scarcer and when the spendthrifts and improvident have carelessly failed to conserve against future opportunity and need.

Now is the time to save—now while the dollars are easy to get. You cannot "eat your cake and have it too." So let's save the cake for a time when it will be most substantial and harder to procure.

Save those little 1920 dollars. They'll be mighty big dollars in 1925, or before.

IRSES GRADUATE AT STATE HOSPITAL

crossing Exercises Carried Out Amusement Hall Address
Given by A. L. Bowen—Diplomas Presented by Dr. Hill.

Seven young women completed their training and received their degree of registered nurse from the Jacksonville State Hospital Tuesday evening.

There was a large crowd of friends present for the program which was given in the annex auditorium hall. The musical numbers, which were given by the students of the School for Blind, and the address which was made by A. L. Bowen, superintendent of state charities were well received.

Mr. Bowen began by congratulating the graduates and then told of the beginnings of modern nursing and the share which Nightingale had in it. In this year we are remembering more for it was just one hundred years ago that she began her work for humanity and came to prominence in her work in Crimea.

Nursing Standardization.
The standardization of the nursing profession has not been achieved for there are two extreme views which have not been reconciled as yet; one is that nurses are born and require but the training and the other is that nurses should have a high school education and then three years of training before they are anted the degree of registered nurse. Mr. Bowen stated that it is in hopes that the present requirements, which demand high school preparation before a man may enter the training school, will be amended in such a way that women may complete their preliminary training while they are in the training schools.

The fact that the State Hospitals and the General hospitals are coming more and more to use the same methods was an interesting statement and Mr.
Bowen also mentioned the fact that the State hospitals were created and sanctioned by the state and that the public pays for them, that they are in fact a vital part of our community.

Diplomas Presented.
Dr. Hill, superintendent of the Jacksonville State Hospital said that none of us knew when we or some of our loved ones might become a patient in the hospital and referred in a complimentary way to the nurses who are there to take competent care of the patients.

He also thanked the School for the Blind which has furnished such an excellent program for the exercises.

Following the program a dance was held in honor of the graduates.

The graduates are: Aline
Crum, Leah Davis, Gladys Henley, Dorothea Higham, Charlotte Houston, Pearl Wheelwell and Edith Ellington.

The program of the evening followed:

G. O. P. Convention Snap-Shots

The Story of 16 Nominations

By A. H. Vandenberg

EIGHTH CONVENTION

The eighth Republican national convention, meeting June 3, 1884, at Chicago, finally gave Blaine the nomination which two previous conventions had denied—gave it to him, by strange prank of fate, the first time in 24 years that the Republican nomination was to fall of election.

Blaine's strongest opposition came from Arthur, who had succeeded to the Presidency upon the death of Garfield and who, contrary to precedent, had been very acceptable in meeting his graduated responsibilities. Arthur was from New York. Yet it was New York which ultimately gave Blaine the nomination, only to defeat him later at the polls by giving Cleveland a scant majority of 1,149 in the great Empire state—small enough to have been easily overcome in a single county, yet big enough in this instance to overturn the country.

George F. Edmunds of Vermont, John A. Logan of Illinois, John Sherman of Ohio, Joseph
R. Hawley of Connecticut, Robert T. Lincoln of Illinois, and William T. Sherman of Missouri also were candidates before the convention.

But Blaine led from the first ballot. For once his opposition could not unite. On the fourth roll call he was nominated; and immediately, on a single roll call General John A. Logan was overwhelmingly designated for second place.

One of the bitterest contests of this convention was for the comparatively inconsequential post of temporary chairman—a contest in which the Blaine forces fought the designation of Powell Clayton of Arkansas and beat him 424 to 384 with John R. Lynch a colored delegate from Mississippi. John B. Henderson of Missouri was permanent chairman.

This was the first convention in which serious effort was made to base apportionment of convention delegates on Republican votes, instead of gross population —an effort to subordinate southern influence—an effort still unconsummated.

The platform of the convention drafted by a committee of which McKinley was chairman, made tariff protection the paramount issue, sounded a new note for railway regulation, declared for the 8-hour day, and spoke against any "entangling alliances" with Europe.

story of the ninth convention.)

POSTPONE I. C. CAMPAIGN IN COUNTY

Unfavorable Weather Leads to Change in Financial Campaign Plans.

The following statement was issued yesterday relative to the postponement of the Illinois College campaign in this county:

To the Friends of Illinois College in Morgan County:

The trustees of Illinois College and the committee in charge of the campaign in Morgan county have decided to postpone until later in the season further prosecution of the financial campaign in the county. Most of the friends of the college in the Col-cord and Franklin precincts and some in the Chapin and other precincts have already given to the fund, and it was the original intention to proceed immediately with the canvass throughout the county, but the continued rains interfered with our plans.

Furthermore, realizing that under the unusual conditions created by the excessive rains, our friends among the farmers, who now need all available time to attend to their spring planting, we hesitate to ask them to give any time to this campaign. When the active campaign is renewed later in the summer or early fall we have no doubt there will be a generous response in the giving of both time and money.

Campaign Director.

HELEN BROWN READ IN BRILLIANT CONCERT

Well Known Singer Delights
Large Audience at Congregational Church—Program Was One of Exceptional Merit.

One of the most pleasing concerts heard in Jacksonville in recent months was that given by Mrs. Helen Brown Read in Congregational church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Read kindly offered her services for the occasion and the proceeds of the concert will be used to purchase an electric motor for the pipe organ.

The church was completely filled with an audience that was most appreciative throughout. Mrs.
Read was in excellent voice and the program was a heavy one, she sang with such spirit that encores were demanded to every number.

These were graciously given and the singer repeated many of the numbers in addition to three encores so that during the evening she sang probably twenty numbers.

Mrs. Read has one of the very best voices Jacksonville has ever produced. This is saying a great deal when one considers the many singers that have been developed here.

The program covered a range that would test the voice of any singer, ranging as it did from the Michaeli Arias of Bluet to Goun's Negro Spiritual, "De Ol Ark's a' Moverin'." She sang with splendid artistry and her interpretation of the various numbers was all that could be desired.

Mrs. Read gave as encores:
"The Nightingales of Lincoln's Inn," from Songs of Old London.
"Sylvia," Oley Speaks and "The Swan," Grieg.

Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard gave Mrs. Read splendid support in the accompaniments and her excellent work added greatly to the success of the program.

Those who were fortunate enough to hear Mrs. Read Tuesday evening pronounced the concert one of the best she has ever given in Jacksonville. It is to be hoped that she will give Jacksonville music lovers other opportunities to hear her while she is here.

CITY COUNCIL
VISITED CEMETERIES

The members of the city council at the invitation of Alderman Moore, chairman of the cemetery committee visited Diamond Grove and Jacksonville cemeteries recently.

While the season has been rather backward, and the rain has made it difficult to work, the cemeteries are in good condition.

The members of the council found much of interest at the cemeteries as many of them were not familiar with them and the amount of work that must be done to keep them in first-class condition.

THE GROWTH OF THE

H. E. Kiltner of Jacksonville was one of the hundred Illinois farmers who signed notes for $100 each in January, 1919, to underwrite the Illinois Agricultural association. At the last executive committee meeting, at which time the secretary was instructed to cancel and return these notes, the organization department reported a membership of 77,000 farmers, from 500 to 3,000 in each of 85 of the 102 counties in the state. The budget for this year's work is $350,000.

SIX MONTHS OLD
BABE IN CIRCUIT COURT

JAMES RICEY, CHAPIN FARMER, SEEKS POSSESSION OF INFANT SON.

Following the Mother's Death, Child Was Placed With Beardstown Family—The Sutton Larceny Case Heard—Other Court News.

The most interesting figure in the circuit court room yesterday was a child less than six months old. This baby is none other than Donald Lee Rickey and a habeas corpus hearing was had affecting his custody and control. Judge E. P. Brockhouse was the attorney for James Rickey of Chapin, who seeks thru this proceeding possession of his infant son. George Steel of Schuyler county appeared for Mr. and Mrs. Rife who have possession of the child.

According to the petition filed, Donald Lee Rickey was born January 30, 1920, at the home of his parents in Beardstown. Two weeks afterward or about February 12, Mrs. Rickey being very ill with influenza, the child was placed in the care of Mrs. Ruby Rife and her husband, Earl Rife. Shortly afterward Mrs. Rickey died and in the course of a few days Mr. Rickey returned to the Chapin neighborhood. He arranged with relatives there to care for his infant son and on March 26 one of them went to Beardstown to take possession of the child.

On that visit it was learned that Mr. and Mrs. Rife had removed from Beardstown. It was subsequently learned that they were residing in Rushville and there Mr. Rickey visited them with the intention of taking the child and bringing him to Morgan county. The Rifes refused to surrender the child, making the claim that when he was left in their care that the father had agreed that later on there should be legal adoption and the child should promptly become a member of their household.

A motion was heard by Judge Burton on the plea of the attorney for Mr. and Mrs. Rife that the court here does not have jurisdiction. The motion was overruled. The hearing was then continued to June 15th.

Sutton Larceny Trial.
The trial of Amos Sutton occupied much of the time in the circuit court yesterday. Sutton was arrested a number of months ago, charged with stealing hogs that belonged to Thomas Cain and which were on his farm in Arnold precinct. An indictment on the charge of grand larceny followed and the case was tried yesterday, numerous witnesses being examined.

The state was represented by State's Attorney Robinson and Sutton was defended by Judge M. T. Layman and W. W. Wright. The taking of evidence was concluded at 5 o'clock and the court gave instructions to the jurors, who were Richard Mathews, E. H. Grider, G. T. Wetzel, E. G. Dewees, Harvey Ralston, C. P. Wilson, Lloyd T. Hamilton, G. W. McAllister, C. L. Hankins, C. O. Leake, Harry Brainer and Martin Cosgriff.

The jury was given the case at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday night, and when the Journal went to press no verdict had been reached.

In the trespass case of John D. Hembrough vs. Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, the cause was dismissed as to the Chicago & Alton railroad.

In the ejectment suit of J. F. Kennedy vs. Palmyra Light, Heat and Power Co., the hearing on the demurrer was fixed for May 28. The same order was made in the ejectment proceedings of E. A. Deatherage and J. C. Deatherage, directed against the same corporation.

The case of the People, ex rel., James Rickey vs. Ruby Rife, et al., habeas corpus, motion was made by the respondent to dismiss for want of jurisdiction. In the suit of Sadie F. Govia vs. Daniel Govia, separate maintenance, motion was considered by the court to modify decree entered at a former term and the matter taken under advisement.

In the divorce proceedings of Pearl Adams File vs. James Samuel File, the answer of the defendant was withdrawn and an order of default taken against him.

In the partition proceedings of Clara Campbell et al., vs. William Henry Campbell, the decree was approved for petition, assignment of dower and for the appointment of commissioners.

In the partition proceedings of Marguerite L. Reid, et al., vs. Lulu Henry Ash, et al., decree of partition was rendered for the assignment of dower and the naming of commissioners.

In the matter of the estate of John Myers, deceased, ex parte petition decree rendered and approved and bond of trustee fixed in the sum of $10,000.

In the divorce suit of Adeline Woodman vs. Thomas Woodman, decree for divorce was rendered in favor of the complainant and she was given the custody of the children. It was shown from the evidence that the defendant was guilty of infidelity prior to being adjudged insane.

In supplemental proceedings relating to the estate of R. H. Headen, et al., vs. Mark C. Cohn, hearing was had by the court on motion and cross motion. The cross motion was denied and the motion allowed, decree being rendered and approved in accordance therewith. This case has been up to the supreme court and was remanded to the circuit court. By the finding it is decreed that a sum of approximately $7,000 which belonged to Mrs. Cohn as an heir of the Headen estate, shall be paid to M. C. Cohn, who is the executor of her estate and resident of California.

THE CLOVERLEAF'S
MONTHLY MESSENGER.

The most recent issue of Flash, a publication for the benefit of the representatives of the Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Co. has just appeared for the month of May. This issue, which is No. 5 of Volume 2, is an eight page paper under several department heads and with half-tone supplement. There are fifteen pictures in the group, all illustrative of enjoyable features of the 1919 convention. That was a joyous outing at a river resort and the pictures are appropriate at this time because preparations are already under way for 1920 convention which is to be held in August. Members of the Cloverleaf family must meet certain conditions to be in this August company and there is naturally plenty of good natured rivalry in the effort to meet these conditions and so be eligible for the summer outing.

President F. H. Rowe in a column message to the Cloverleaf people gives some interesting suggestions under the caption "Business Ahead." In one paragraph Mr. Rowe said:

"This is a day of co-operation, of team work and the self made man in these days is a myth. The man who claims it has an acute attack of 'Ego.' Co-operate with our agency department and get 'pep.' Co-operate with our collection department and get perseverance for your work. Co-operate with our claim department and sell your policy on principle, and then the claim department will settle on principle, and your policy holder will always be pleased."

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER URGES
CHURCH ADVERTISING

Theodore M. Tomlinson, who is attending the Presbyterian general assembly in Philadelphia, sent a Jacksonville friend a copy of the Enquirer published in that city. In this issue there is a statement with reference to the attitude of the church toward the World Church movement and co-operation to overcome $5,000,000 deficit in the fund.

There is considerable difference of opinion amongst the commissioners on this question. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is very much interested in the Interchurch World movement and has approved the plan for meeting the deficit. He has already given very liberally to the general fund and it is likely that he will assist materially in making good the deficit.

In the pre-assembly meeting, held in Witherspoon hall, evangelism was the general theme and the principal speaker was Dr. Stephen S. Estey. He laid special emphasis on the statement that the churches of today must do more advertising and presented appealing arguments to sustain his position.

B. Y. P. U. Held Picnic
at Nichols Park.

Members of the B. Y. P. U. of First Baptist church held a picnic at Nichols park Tuesday evening. For some weeks a contest has been in progress between the young men and the young ladies. The ladies won and the men entertained them at Weiner and marsh-mallow roast. There were about twenty two present and the party went to the park at 6 o'clock. The evening was spent in a most pleasant manner and the occasion proved a most enjoyable one in every particular.

Miss Helen Allcott Entertains

Miss Helen Allcott entertained at her home, 907 West State street, yesterday for Miss Gladys Andre. Seventeen guests were present and enjoyed the afternoon at bridge. The prize was won by Miss Lura Wiswell and Miss Andre was awarded the guest prize.

The guests were invited into the dining room, which was prettily decorated in pink and white and lighted with candles. Lovely pink roses were used with telling effect, as the center piece. The refreshments also carried out the color scheme.

The senior class of the high school held a bouquet last night at the Peacock Inn in honor of Miss Minnie Balcke, who has been their class advisor throughout their high school career.

Miss Balcke has accepted a place on the Galesburg high school staff and will leave at the close of the present term. The class held the banquet last evening to show in part their appreciation of all that she has done for them.

D. A. R. Held May Meeting

A regular meeting of Rev. James Caldwell chapter, D. A. R., was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Walton with a large attendance.

The program relating to the general theme of "Morgan County and the War," begun at the April meeting, was continued. Miss M. A. Fairbank, the incoming regent, had spoken appropriately of the year's possibilities. Miss Grace Gilham presented a paper on "The Work of Women" and Miss Effie Epler one on "Men Who Served at Home." Both emphasized in a very informing way the importance of the work done.

Miss Epler also made a report of the national D. A. R. congress at Washington which she attended. The facts were put together in a very unusual and interesting way.

The pleasure of the occasion was greatly increased by a group of songs sung by Mrs. A. R. Gregory, with Willard Wesner as accompanist. Following the program came a social hour in which the hostesses served refreshments. Mrs. Miller Weir was the chairman of the committee of hostesses and because of her inability to attend Miss Clara Stevenson served in her place. The other hostesses were, Mrs. C. C. Phelps, Mrs. H. C. Montgomery, Mrs. F. M. Shields, Mrs. M. J. Donohoe, Mrs. Mary Ausmus, Miss Helen Adams, Miss Abbie Hatch and Mrs. L. T. Potter.

With the Sick

The many friends of Mrs. Stella Spain will be glad to know that she has returned to her home, 314 North Prairie street, after an illness of five weeks at Our Savior's hospital. P. R. Briggs, 237 Pine street, cut his thumb recently and now infection has set in and blood poisoning is threatening.

Miss Elizabeth Ridder of Alexander is seriously ill of pneumonia. Miss Ridder is a daughter of Mrs. Joseph Ridder, whose death occurred at an early hour Sunday morning.

C. P. & S. L. SHOPS
MAY SOON REOPEN

A rumor is current that the C. P. & S. L. shops will soon reopen. Positive information on this point is lacking but it is believed that the shut-down, which began about ten days ago, will not continue much longer. While a number of the former employees of the shops are now working elsewhere, it is probable that they will soon return here to their old positions when the opportunity is offered.

J. CAPPS & SONS, LTD.

FROM A FARMER'S VIEWPOINT.

Editor Journal:
I was much impressed by the article of Mr. Lukeman regarding the cutting of price by large city houses and his censure of the Journal for publishing such news. I can only say that the same appears in all the papers I see and I can hardly see why the Journal should be behind the times in publishing the news. The talk on all sides today is for a square deal and fair play. Now let us see if the farmer isn't entitled to be heard. Prices for wool have been as follows:

In 1917, 53c a pound.
In 1918, 64c a pound.
In 1919, 54c a pound.

Today, 25c to 28c a pound.
In 1917 I bought a suit of clothes for $40, today the same suit or one not quite as good costs $70 to $80. I am not certain but think it takes say six to eight pounds of wool to make a suit. Who gets all the rest? Doesn't somebody make a pretty good margin?

Before the great war a man received $1.50 to $2.00 a day for common labor or fifteen or twenty cents an hour as they then worked ten hours a day, or suppose they worked nine hours a day it was about 17 to 23 cents an hour. The men on the new High school building were getting $4.05 a day for nine hours or 45 cents an hour and asked for $5 for eight hours or 62.50 cents an hour. Now admitting that the cost of living has increased 100 per cent then 35 cents an hour would represent the increase in wages a man should have. He was receiving 45 cents and wanted 62.50 cents an hour. Where is the justice?

Some one says the farmer is getting $2 for his corn. The men who feed the world do not sell their corn; they feed it. It takes very good conditions all around for a bushel of corn to make ten pounds of pork. A man gets then $1.35 to $1.45 a bushel for the corn he feeds his hogs.

The prices of live stock may vary as much as $1 or $1.50 a hundred but we see no change in quotations for packers' products.

I cannot escape the feeling that all about is far too much the feeling of antagonism; a feeling that every man is entitled to get all he can from the farmer and give as little as possible. I say this seems to prevail to too great an extent. It is very fine to talk of a 44 hour week with more than twice the pay that used to be given for 60 hours. It is very fine for a set of union railroad labor officials to hold a stop watch on congress and secure an eight hours a day railroad law but somebody has to pay for all that. The grain and livestock that go to market must largely help pay the bill. A farmer would get but a very short distance if he worked eight hours a day the year round and yet his products must be first to fall in case of a change in the markets.

Today the cost of building make it well nigh prohibitory and the question will arise, what will be the outcome? All that a farmer buys has increased enormously in cost. Implements, clothing and in fact everything that enters into his bill of expense during the year and if we are to have a square deal all around it would seem as if there should be considerable change somewhere.

J. E. OSBORNE.

ATTENTION, G. A. R.

Is Your Blood Starving For Want of Iron?

Iron is Red-Blood Food—Nourished Iron Helps Put Roses into the Cheeks of Women and Gives Strength and Energy to Men

If you were to go without eating until you become weak, thin and emaciated, you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain. Without plenty of iron in the blood, no matter how much or what you eat, your food simply passes through you without doing you any good—you don't get the strength out of it and instead of being filled with youthful strength and energy you are weak, nervous and all run-down. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can walk or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. But don't take the old kind of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like Nuxated Iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. You can procure Nuxated Iron from your druggist on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or your money will be refunded.

THE BEST ON EARTH

Says Mrs. Staples of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female troubles. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during Life I used the same remedy. I am now seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude to it."—Mrs. SUSAN C. STAPLES, 157 B School St., Taunton, Mass.

The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness such as displacements, inflammation and ulceration. "Why don't you try it?"

Where Gasoline Prices Stand

OIL products have advanced in price more slowly than any other products. The U. S. Department of Labor, in a comparative statement of price advances between January 1913, and December 1919, says:

(In the following table 100 is taken as the normal base for 1913)

	Jan. 1913	Dec. 1919	Percentage of Increase
Cloths and Clothing	100	335	235%
House Furnishings	100	303	203%
Labor and building material	100	253	153%
Farm produce	97	244	151.5%
Food	99	234	136.3%
Chemicals	101	179	77.2%
Fuel and lighting	103	181	75.7%
Metals and metal products	107	169	58%

(Monthly Labor Review, Vol. X, No. 3)

On January 1, 1913, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was paying $1.44 per barrel for crude delivered at the refinery at Whiting, Ind., and was selling gasoline for 14½¢ per gallon.

On December 31, 1919, the price of crude had advanced to $3.51 per barrel, f. o. b. Whiting, and the selling price of gasoline to 21¢ per gallon.

In other words this Company is paying two and one-half times as much for crude oil as it was in 1913, but because of its more efficient refining methods it is able to sell gasoline to you for less than one-half more than was charged at that time.

(Continuing the table:)

Crude Petroleum	100	240	140%
Red Crown Gasoline	100	144.8	44.8%

It will be seen from the above tables that gasoline stands at the end of the list as regards price increase, and that crude petroleum stands sixth from the end, showing how effectively refining efficiency has operated in behalf of the motorist.

Every cost entering into the making of gasoline has risen immensely. The cost of crude, the cost of refining, and the cost of marketing are all greater than ever before.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by superior efficiency in every process of refining and distributing has contributed in no small degree to hold the price of gasoline down to its present level. Every man in the manufacturing end of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is keenly alive to the pressing necessity for an increased output of gasoline at a minimum manufacturing cost.

The ideal toward which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is striving, is to put Red Crown, a gasoline of known, standard quality, within the reach of motorists everywhere in the Middle West, at a price so low as to make possible the free use of that 25 percent increase in automotive vehicles which is anticipated for 1920.

AUTOMOBILES AND PATRIOTS.
Next Monday will be Decoration Day and for that purpose a good many automobiles are needed to convey to the cemeteries veterans of the G. A. R., ladies of the Relief Corps and Boy Scouts, especially for decorating the graves of the soldier dead. For the morning cars desired to start from the south side of the square at 9:30 o'clock and go to Calvary and Diamond Grove cemeteries which will require from an hour and a half to two hours and a bit longer for all who remain to decorate. A liberal response is desired that the memory of the fallen may be suitably regarded.

All persons willing to supply cars please leave word with S. W. Nichols or the young lady book-keeper at the Journal office and state whether morning or afternoon or if willing to turn out for both.
